

Studio Kotsireas, was created by the two brothers Christos and Ilias Kotsireas.

After many successful years in photo -reportage, they decided to turn to other areas of photographic expression.

Nowadays that digital technology leaves its mark everywhere, Studio Kotsireas emphasizes in the excellent work in photo shooting combining each time the most sophisticated image editors.

Studio Kotsireas is for more than a decade between the best photographic studios in Greece.

Over these years, have been carried out photo shoots for theatrical productions, creative directories, sales literature, and entries.

Well known publishing houses and museums have cooperated with Studio Kotsireas for blogging, travel guides, collector's publications and calendars.

Photos on this website, are a small sample of our work and reveals our photographic imprint in the area of professional photography.
